What every parent owes to their child

Five Steps of The Blessing

1. As God said to Abraham, “ Hold your son so that he knows your love without words”
2. Tell your son that he is “exactly what we dreamt of and wanted”
3. Tell him there is nothing you could do or say that would keep me from loving you. I may not handle what you do well every time but loving you is never in question
4. Tell your son “I can tell you have something very special to give mankind but I don’t know what that is, that is between you and God”
5. Tell your son: “I just want to live long enough to be your biggest Fan”
